Persons or entities that employ only a lobbying firm (including an individual contract lobbyist) are not required to complete this form and register with the Secretary of State. However, they must complete a Form 602 (Lobbying Firm Activity Authorization) and file quarterly reports of lobbying payments Form 635 (Report of Lobbyist Employer/Lobbying Coalition).

Initial Registration:

- A lobbyist employer or lobbying coalition must register with the Secretary of State within 10 days of qualifying as a lobbyist employer or lobbying coalition.

Reporting Agencies to be Lobbied

Each lobbyist identified in Part I will be registered to lobby all agencies listed on the Lobbyist Employer Registration Statement and all subsequent amendments unless a lobbyist identifies specific agencies on his/her Lobbyist Certification Statement (Form 604).

Reporting Lobbying Interests

Following are some examples of how to report lobbying interests on the registration statement:

Example 1:

ABC Corporation develops, manufactures and distributes pharmaceuticals. On its Form 603 (Lobbyist Employer Registration Statement), it would not be sufficient to describe the corporation's lobbying interests as "Legislation relating to business," or "Legislation relating to manufacturing." The description should say "Legislation relating to the development, manufacturing and distribution of pharmaceuticals."

Example 2:

A group of real estate companies decides to share the cost of hiring a lobbying firm to influence a specific regulation being considered by the Department of Fair Employment and Housing. Because there are 10 or more companies pooling funds to hire a lobbyist, the group qualifies as a "lobbying coalition." The Form 603 should specifically describe the administrative action to be lobbied, such as "Regulations of the Department of Fair Employment and Housing relating to adults-only rental policies (Section 12-8, 12-9)."

Example 3:

The DEF Association is an organization which represents local government entities, such as cities and counties. One of DEF Association's employees is its lobbyist. The lobbyist's primary lobbying efforts during one reporting period are in connection with a bill to limit the liability of local governmental entities in personal injury lawsuits and a bill affecting the powers of redevelopment agencies. The lobbyist also monitors other bills relating to local government issues, but does not actively lobby those bills. On its Form 603, the association would describe its lobbying interests as "Legislation relating to cities, counties, and other local government entities."

NOTE: Lobbyist employers and lobbying coalitions are also required to file quarterly reports disclosing, among other things, the specific legislative or administrative actions lobbied during the period covered by the report. See the Form 635 (Report of Lobbyist Employer/Report of Lobbying Coalition) or the Lobbying Disclosure Information Manual for detailed information.

All filers must complete Section E. Check one box that most accurately describes the industry group you represent. Industry, trade, or professional associations should check the box that most accurately describes the industry group of its members, (e.g., an association of hospitals would be classified as "Health," and an association of mortgage banking entities would be classified as "Business-Finance/Insurance"). The category "Business" has been divided into several sub-categories, including:

Entertainment/Recreation: Includes baseball, football teams and country clubs, casinos, horse breeders, race tracks, music companies, and theaters. Does not include hobby or recreational clubs which are not business-related.
